2. Distance teaching of pastoral theology;
3. Translated pastoral interviews with dementing ESL (English as a Second Language) residents;
4. The place of pastoral presence in ministry with people affected by psychosis.

Project details

1. Producing teaching videos for pastoral theology

   Simulated interviews with typical psychiatric hospital residents portrayed by senior members of the mental health ministry team demonstrate the range of psychiatric symptoms encountered in mental health units, and constructive approaches to offering pastoral ministry there (with Loren Engelbrecht, I.T. consultant)

2. Distance teaching of pastoral theology

   Weekly face-to-face lectures are also available using Moodle and YouTube for interstate students (with Chris Baghos I.T. Co-ordinator).

3. Translated pastoral interviews with dementing ESL (English as a Second Language) residents (with Carmen Karauda co-supervisor)

   In a Greek Aged Care Facility, bi-lingual Greek-speaking theological students translate literally into Greek what the non-Greek-speaking CPE students are saying to the non-English-speaking resident, and for the CPE students into English what the resident is saying in Greek.

4. The place of pastoral presence in ministry with people affected by psychosis

   In supervised pastoral placements, Mental Health ministry students learn from the residents what works and what does not work in pastoral ministry with people affected by a wide range of psychiatric conditions.
